ORDER

On December 8, 2021, Rosamary Johnson filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi seeking judicial review of the decision denying her claim for supplemental security income and/or disability insurance benefits. Doc. #1. On February 8, 2022, the Commissioner moved to remand this case pursuant to sentence six of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). Doc. #6. As grounds for remand, the Commissioner represents that further administrative proceedings are needed to consider additional evidence “consist[ing] of records from Greenwood Orthopedic Clinic” which were “not in the record before the Administrative Law Judge” and are material to Johnson’s allegations of severe wrist impairment. Id. at 1–2. The Commissioner also represents that the request for remand is unopposed. Id. at 3.

Upon consideration, the motion to remand [6] is GRANTED. This case is REMANDED for further administrative proceedings pursuant to sentence six of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

SO ORDERED, this 9th day of February, 2022.
